

.....IT'S SPRING - WELL NEARLY - WITNESS
THE MUD ON THE WEST PARKING LOT AND LEADING TO THE ATHLETIC COMPLEX - THE PUDDLES OF WATER BY THE LIBRARY - THE BOOTS AND RUBBERS DEFIANTLY LEFT AT HOME -

IT'S ALSO A TIME OF LITTLE HAPPENING
AS EXAMS LOOM ON THE HORIZON AND ACTIVITIES COME TO AN END - BUT THERE'S STILL A BIT.....

March, '68

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20

- 4:00 P.M. - DRUMMOND AUD. - Rev. Bernard Lonergan, S.J. will speak on "The Absence of God in Modern Culture". Fr. Lonergan is one of Loyola's outstanding graduates whose writings have received world wide recognition.
- 4:30 P.M. - VANIER AUD. - Dr. Jaime Henao Uribe, Consul General of Columbia will speak on "La Cultura Andina" - a talk about South American culture and customs - particularly the Andean region - with colorful pictures to illustrate his remarks. All are welcome.
- 8:30 P.M. - SIR GEORGE WILLIAMS AUD. 920 - Loyola's German Dept. is one of the sponsors of the appearance of actor Klaus Jurgen, of the Vienna theater, who will read works by contemporary Austrian writers. Free and open to all.
- ALL DAY - Commerce Assembly Elections when 1st, 2nd & 3rd year students will vote for their class reps.
- 3:00 P.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - The Arts Society aren't giving and up - they're sponsoring two showings of the film
8:00 P.M. "Viva Maria" for their usual low price of 75¢.

THURSDAY, MARCH 21

- 12:00 Noon C-114 - The Vietnam Lecture Series continues with "Pacifism and the Alternatives" by Prof. Edmund Egan, Philosophy Dept.. There will be ample time for discussion.
- 4:00 P.M. - DRUMMOND - Dr. John Sirjamaki, Professor of Sociology, State Univ. of N.Y. at Buffalo visits Loyola for two days. "Sociology of Cities" is his first lecture.

- 8:00 P.M. - VANIER AUD. - Prof. C.W.J. Eliot of Univ. of B.C. will speak on "Athens - At The Time of Bryon". This lecture is co-sponsored by Loyola's Classics Department and the Archeological Institute of America.
- 8:00 P.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - The Loyola High School Players present "Cyrano de Bergerac". Tickets 50¢. A chance to see the coming generation of thespians in action!
- 8:15 P.M. - COUNCIL ROOM, LEACOCK BLDG. - MCGILL - Dr. Henry Habib of Loyola's Political Science Dept. discusses "Nasser" with members of the History Association of Montreal.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22

- 10:00 A.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - "Current Crises in Canada Today" a lecture by Senator John Connolly will include remarks about the parliamentary, monetary and federal-provincial relations problems in our country. He may also have some interesting comments about the Liberal Leadership campaign.
- 12:00 Noon VANIER AUD. - Second lecture by Sociologist John Sirjamaki on "Theory and Research in Sociology".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27

- 10:00 A.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - Warren Allmand, M.P. for N.D.G. will speak on "My Views on the Leadership of the Liberal Leadership" — maybe we'll find out how one local delegate to the Liberal convention will vote! —
- 8:30 P.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - Marek Jablonski, Canadian pianist presents the last regular concert in this year's Loyola Wednesday Night Series. Tickets are $2.50 - $1.00 for students - at the door.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28

- 12:00 Noon - C-114 - Dr. S.C. Russell of the English Dept. discusses "The Responsibility of the Individual" in the Vietnam Lecture Series sponsored by the Loyola Faculty Cttee. for Peace in Vietnam.
- 7:30 P.M. - GUADAGNI LOUNGE - Annual Seniors Night when senior students have an opportunity to meet and talk with Alumni Association members now in the business and professional world.

SUNDAY, MARCH 31

- 8:15 P.M. - F.C. SMITH AUD. - Loyola Choral Society Spring Concert. The choir will perform classical, sacred, folk and modern music accompanied by the Loyola Brass Quintet.
The Loyola Woodwind Quintet will make its debut at this concert which will also include the Madrigal Singers. No charge for this excellent program.

DON'T LET SPRING FEVER GET YOU DOWN - YOU'LL FEEL BETTER SOON. WE'LL BE BACK. _____